The charming and beautiful Villa Ylang Ylang, with a view of the sea at Flamands, is one of the island's prettiest. The living room which is brightened by a big picture window overlooking the rear gardens features a comfortable sectional sofa; sliders open to the terrace and the pool. The indoor dining room is adjacent to the well-equipped kitchen and BBQ area making it perfect for nights when guests choose to cook-in and spend a relaxing evening at home. The outdoor spaces, which center around a sparkling heated pool ensconced in an expansive sun deck, include a covered dining terrace - perfect for poolside lunches - and an additional comfortable living area. The master bedroom looks out to the pool; it has a king four-poster bed and an en suite bath. An additional connecting bathroom also connects to the dining room and serves as a guest bath. The second bedroom with an en-suite galley style bathroom is located next to the living room; its king bed can convert to twins making it suitable for older children. A third sleeping area with bath, only suitable
